MEETING THE CHALLENGE

Michael A. Fitts

Pennsylvania Law School

Paul G. Haaga, Jr. L'74, WG'74
Chair
Board of Overseers

As May turned to June last summer, we found ourselves short of our goal for annual giving. Time was running out. In a fortuitous turn of events, several alumni stepped forward to challenge the Penn Law community.

These benefactors challenged us to find 1,000 new donors. If we succeeded, they promised to make major contributions to annual giving.

In true Penn Law fashion, we came through as a community. Alumni, faculty and staff banded together — more than 1200 in total — to raise $960,000 in one month, including gifts from our anonymous benefactors. This put us at just over $3 million in annual giving for fiscal 2008-09. The total for the year was nearly $13.2 million.

To raise that amount of money under normal circumstances is a major accomplishment. To do so during an economic downturn is herculean. Congratulations!

Tough times can bring out the best in people. The June Challenge, as we called our annual giving drive, proved that. It underscored what we've always known about our alumni: You are resilient, forward-looking and, above all, loyal and dedicated to the mission of Penn Law School.

That mission never wavers: to provide the best legal education in the country. With your support, both in the past year and throughout the Bold Ambitions campaign, we are fulfilling that commitment.

Because of you, we have been able to expand our faculty, creating a cross-disciplinary academic program with the other schools of this University that is second to none. Because of you, we have been able to increase our financial aid exponentially, attracting the best and brightest students year after year. Because of you, we have been able to undertake a top to bottom renovation of our entire physical plant.

But we have not crossed the finish line yet. This past year, we planted seeds for our future — with another special appeal to alumni. The money we have raised — and continue to raise — will bloom into the Sansom Street Project, which will replace Pepper Hall.

The three-story, $33 million building will culminate a 10-year transformation of the Penn Law campus. Our new 40,000-square-foot structure will connect Silverman Hall with Tanenbaum Hall.

It will feature a rooftop garden; a state-of-the-art moot courtroom built to federal courthouse standards; a 350-seat auditorium which can be converted into a large classroom; and a grand, two-story entry hall with spectacular views of the Law School courtyard.

Groundbreaking will begin next fall. When the building is completed, we will have the best urban law school campus in the country, with enough seminar rooms, faculty offices and administrative space for the next 20 years.

Your response to the June challenge revealed the character of our community. All of the improvements in our program, including the Sansom Street Project, affirms our faith in the graduates of this law school. You are simply the best. Thank you for your support.

LEADERSHIP DONORS

IN PROFILE

In grateful recognition of gifts of $2 million or more made to the University of Pennsylvania Law School in Academic Year 2008-2009.

CHARLES A. HEIMBOLD, JR. L'60 and MONIKA HEIMBOLD

Charles and Monika Heimbold have made a substantial contribution to endow the Heimbold Chair in International Law.

Mr. Heimbold made the gift to strengthen Penn Law's international law program and to serve the growing number of international students at the school and the global interests of the faculty.

Mr. Heimbold's interest in international law stems from his experience at the Hague Academy of International Law while a law school student and from his years in diplomatic work. From 2001 to 2004, Mr. Heimbold served as the U.S. ambassador to Sweden. President George W. Bush appointed him ambassador just three days after 9/11.

Before his diplomatic assignment, Mr. Heimbold was chairman and CEO of Bristol-Myers Squibb Co., one of the world's largest diversified pharmaceutical companies; deputy chairman of the Board of Directors of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York; and a director of the ExxonMobil Corp.

An emeritus member of Penn Law's Board of Overseers, he was chairman from 1991 to 2001. Mr. Heimbold also served as a member of the Board of Trustees for the University of Pennsylvania from 1995 to 2003.

Monika Heimbold, a native of Sweden, has demonstrated a commitment to education and has devoted much energy to improving the lives of children. She is the chair of the Heimbold Foundation, as well as a co-founder and director of the World Childhood Foundation and a director of the American Scandinavian Foundation. The World Childhood Foundation is a Swedish-based child welfare agency that focuses on abused and deprived children in Russia, the Baltic States, Brazil and the Balkans. The American Scandinavian Foundation is a nonprofit organization that promotes international understanding through educational and cultural exchange between the United States and several Scandinavian countries.

LEADERSHIP DONORS IN PROFILE

In grateful recognition of gifts of $1,000,000 to $1,999,999
made to the University of Pennsylvania Law School in Academic Year 2008-2009.

THE ESTATE OF FLORENCE GLASS KAUFMAN

The estate of Florence Glass Kaufman has made a substantial gift to establish the David E. Kaufman and Leopold C. Glass Professorship. Mrs. Kaufman was married to David E. Kaufman, who served as U.S. ambassador to Thailand and Bolivia.

GEORGE C. GREER L'57

George Greer has made a significant gift to establish the George C. Greer Scholarship Fund. Mr. Greer worked at the H.J. Heinz Co. for nearly forty years, and retired as vice president of H.J. Heinz in 1997. He is now chairman and president of the Eden Hall Foundation. The private foundation was established after the death of Sebastian Mueller, a Pittsburgh philanthropist and vice president and director of H.J. Heinz.

MYLES H. TANENBAUM W'52, L'57

Myles H. Tanenbaum has made a major gift in support of the Sansom Street Project, which will replace Pepper Hall. An emeritus overseer of the Law School and a trustee emeritus of the University of Pennsylvania,

Mr. Tanenbaum is a longtime supporter of the Law School, having contributed the lead gift to the construction of Tanenbaum Hall. When it opened in 1993, the 72,000-square-foot structure was the first major building on the Law School campus in 30 years. It is home to the Biddle Law Library, the offices of Career Planning and Professionalism and Public Service, areas for student law journals, seminar rooms and a popular student lounge whose landmark is "The Clock."

Mr. Tanenbaum is the recipient of Wharton's Man of the Year Award, the University's Alumni Award of Merit, and Penn Law School's Distinguished Service Award.

Mr. Tanenbaum is chairman of A Wish Come True, a vendor of dance and competition clothing. Prior to this, Mr. Tanenbaum was chairman of Arbor Enterprises, a family holding company. Between 1970 and 1983, he was CEO of Kravco, Inc., which became one of the nation's largest shopping mall developers. From 1957 to 1970, Mr. Tanenbaum was a tax partner at Wolf, Block, Schorr and Solis-Cohen.

SKADDEN, ARPS, SLATE, MEAGHER & FLOM LLP & AFFILIATES

Students will have even more opportunities to advocate for human rights and asylum protection, thanks to a gift from Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom and its partners. The gift honors Robert C. Sheehan, L'69, who recently ended his 15-year tenure as executive partner of the law firm and assumed a new role as the firm's pro bono partner. Penn Law is using the gift to create the Sheehan Asylum/Human Rights Project.

The school will recruit a full-time professor to guide students as they work on asylum cases in partnership with local providers of legal services to immigrants.

As executive partner from 1994 to April 2009, Mr. Sheehan oversaw the firm's global expansion and spearheaded community service initiatives, including pro bono work. From 2001 to 2008, the average number of pro bono hours for Skadden attorneys nearly doubled, and the percentage of lawyers who contribute at least 20 hours a week increased from 38 percent to 65 percent.

Earlier this year, Sheehan received the Pro Bono Institute's Laurie D. Zelon Award from U.S. Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg in recognition of his exemplary pro bono service. In addition, Sheehan received the Legal Aid Society's 2005 Servant of Justice Award for his many significant contributions to pro bono causes.

In grateful recognition of gifts of $250,000 to $999,999
made to the University of Pennsylvania Law School in Academic Year 2008-2009.

MURRAY KUSHNER C'73, L'76

Murray Kushner has made a generous gift in support of the Sansom Street Project, which will replace Pepper Hall. Mr. Kushner is president of Schenkman/Kushner Affiliates Inc. The company owns and manages more than five million square feet of office space and industrial space and has substantial residential holdings. Mr. Kushner has been a real estate developer for more than 25 years. Mr. Kushner is a member of the Penn Law Board of Overseers.

RICHARD SCHIFTER L'78

Richard P. and Jennifer D. Schifter have made a generous gift in support of the Sansom Street Project, which will replace Pepper Hall. Since 1994, Mr. Schifter has been a partner at TPG Capital (formerly Texas Pacific Group), a private equity investment firm that revives troubled companies. Prior to joining TPG, Mr. Schifter was a partner at the law firm of Arnold & Porter, where he specialized in bankruptcy law and corporate restructuring. Early in his career, Mr. Schifter clerked for the Honorable Max Rosenn L'32 of the U.S. Court of Appeals, 3rd Circuit. Mr. Schifter is a member of the Penn Law Board of Overseers.

MORRIS M. SHUSTER W'51, L'54 and LORNA T. SHUSTER

Morris and Lorna Shuster have made a major gift to create the Shuster Practice Professorship, the first professorship at the Law School in support of clinical education. Doug Frenkel, architect and longtime director of the nationally renowned Gittis Center for Clinical Legal Studies, was recently named the first chairholder.

Mr. Shuster serves as of counsel at Chimicles & Tikellis LLP and teaches Trial Advocacy at Penn Law School. He has also been a member of the advisory committee for the Public Service Program at Penn Law since its inception. Mr. Shuster's past and ongoing support has extended to the construction of the Shuster Moot Trial Court Room and public interest scholarships.

DAVID M. SILK L'88

David M. Silk has made a generous gift to establish the David M. Silk Scholarship Fund. The fund will award scholarships to law students based on merit and financial need. Mr. Silk serves on the Board of Advisors of the Institute for Law and Economics.

Mr. Silk is a partner at Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz, where he focuses on mergers and acquisitions, and other corporate matters. He lectures frequently on transnational topics and has served as an adjunct faculty member at Penn Law, teaching a course on mergers and acquisitions.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN SOCIETY

The University of Pennsylvania created the Benjamin Franklin Society in 1955 to honor alumni and friends who support the University with unrestricted gifts. Listed below is an honor roll of our most generous benefactors.

Michael Wheat L'79

THANK YOU TO OUR VOLUNTEERS

Michael Wheat L'79 is the chair of the Benjamin Franklin Society. He is a managing director at Frasca & Associates, LLC, where he specializes in transportation issues, with a focus on airport financings. He joined Frasca & Associates in 2009, after having served as managing director at Merrill Lynch. Before that, he served as director in the Public Finance Department of Salomon Smith Barney, a Citi company.

Prior to becoming an investment banker, Mr. Wheat was a lawyer and local government official in Washington. From 1981 to 1986, Mr. Wheat was employed by the Office of the Deputy Mayor of Finance for the District of Columbia, where he worked on the District's re-entry into the capital markets through the first sale of bonds by the city in this century. He was at one time responsible for overseeing the issuance of more than $1 billion of general obligation and revenue bonds by the District.

The Benjamin Franklin Society gratefully recognizes four levels of support:

INSTITUTE FOR LAW AND ECONOMICS

ILE Investors 2008-2009

The Institute for Law & Economics (ILE) at the University of Pennsylvania was founded in 1980 as a collaboration of the Law School, the Wharton School, and the Department of Economics in Penn's School of Arts and Sciences. Cross-disciplinary research, the cornerstone of ILE, seeks to influence the national policy debate by analyzing the impact of law on the global economy, spotlighting the significant role that economics plays in fashioning legal policy.

In the current environment, with the interface between law and business assuming critical importance, ILE's work has been at the forefront, both in scholarship and in pragmatic discussions of the central issues involved in corporate governance. Through its roundtables and other conferences, ILE assembles a unique mix of academics, business and government leaders, and prominent members of the legal profession and the judiciary, who analyze and help to shape business policy and the laws and regulations that support it.

ILE has an extraordinarily distinguished cadre of board members and sponsors who are willing to give of their time and expertise to make its programming a success. The range of organizations represented on the ILE Advisory Board was further broadened during the past year with the addition of three new members: Daniel H. Burch (MacKenzie Partners, Inc.); Stuart M. Grant (Grant & Eisenhofer P.A.); and Heidi Stam (The Vanguard Group).

Funding for the Institute comes from a diverse group of corporations, law firms, foundations, and individuals. Once again this year, fundraising was greatly augmented by leadership gifts at the Benefactor level: Charles I. Cogut L'73, partner, Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP; Robert L. Friedman L'67, senior managing director and chief legal officer, The Blackstone Group L.P.; Paul S. Levy L'72, founder of JLL Partners; Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, via executive partner Eric J. Friedman L'89; and Sullivan & Cromwell LLP, via Joseph B. Frumkin L'85.

In Academic Year 2008-2009, the Institute for Law and Economics raised $498,200 for its programs.

Helen Pomerantz Pudlin
CW'70, GED'71, L'74

THANK YOU TO OUR VOLUNTEERS

David B. L'74 and Helen Pomerantz Pudlin CW'70, GED'71, L'74 are the national chairs for Annual Giving.

Mr. Pudlin has been president of the law firm of Hangley Aronchick Segal & Pudlin since its founding in 1994. He also serves as the firm's CEO. He concentrates his practice in tax law, estate planning, and business/employment law. Mr. Pudlin has served on the governing boards of both the Probate and Tax Sections of the Philadelphia Bar Association, and also as the chair of both the Large Law Firm and mid-Size Law Firm Management Committees of the Philadelphia Bar Association.

Mrs. Pudlin, executive vice president and general counsel of The PNC Financial Services Group, oversees the legal functions for the corporation, which is one of the largest diversified financial services organizations in the United States. She is also a member of the company's Executive Committee. Before joining PNC, Mrs. Pudlin was a partner at Ballard, Spahr, Andrews & Ingersoll, where she concentrated her practice on commercial litigation and co-chaired the Health Care Group. At Penn Law, she was previously a member of the Board of Overseers, and a lecturer in courses on appellate advocacy.

The Pudlins are members of the Campaign Executive Committee and served as co-chairs of the Benjamin Franklin Society during fiscal year 2006-07.

2009 3L CLASS GIFT

The Class of 2009 ran one of the most successful class gift campaigns in Penn Law's history, with a record 70 percent of the class donating over $49,149 in gifts and pledges. The individuals listed below generously contributed to that campaign. This year's gift will support scholarships and financial aid resources for future 3Ls seeking employment in public interest law.

Bold Ambitions

THE CAMPAIGN FOR PENN LAW

If you have already included Penn Law as part of your estate plan, or if you would like information on ways to do so, please contact:

Al Russo
alrusso@law.upenn.edu
www.upenn.planyourlegacy.org

Your gift qualifies you for membership in the William Draper Lewis Legacy Circle and the Harrison Society.

Crafting Your Legacy

Smart Strategies for Challenging Times.

Creating your legacy with a gift to Penn Law is easier than you might think.

Through the years, many individuals have found planned gifts to be an excellent vehicle for benefiting Penn Law. Your gift allows Penn Law to build upon its tradition of academic excellence and ensures Penn continues as one of the preeminent institutions of higher education in the world today. No matter what stage of life you're in, Penn's Office of Gift Planning can help tailor a bequest and structure gifts of stock, real estate, life insurance, or retirement plans to maximize tax savings while supporting Penn Law.

ASYLUM/HUMAN RIGHTS
PROJECT

The Law School would like to thank Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom and its partners for a $1 million gift that will give students more opportunities to advocate for human rights and asylum protection.

The school will recruit a full-time professor to guide students as they work on asylum cases in partnership with local providers of legal services to immigrants. The Sheehan Project will be part of Penn Law's three-year-old Transnational Legal Clinic, where students work with clients across cultures, languages, borders and legal systems on human rights litigation and advocacy.

The gift honors Robert C. Sheehan L'69, who recently ended his 15-year tenure as executive partner of Skadden Arps and assumed a new role as the firm's pro bono partner. Sheehan, who was executive partner from 1994 to April 2009, oversaw the firm's global expansion and spearheaded community service initiatives, including pro bono work. From 2001 to 2008, the average number of pro bono hours for Skadden attorneys nearly doubled, and the percentage of lawyers who contribute at least 20 hours a week increased from 38 percent to 65 percent.

Earlier this year, Sheehan received the Pro Bono Institute's Laurie D. Zelon Award from U.S. Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg in recognition of his exemplary pro bono service. In addition, Sheehan received the Legal Aid Society's 2005 Servant of Justice Award for his many significant contributions to pro bono causes.

FRIENDS OF BIDDLE LAW LIBRARY

The Law School is grateful to the following donors who generously gave $23,193 in support of the University of Pennsylvania's Biddle Law Library in Academic Year 2008-09.

The Honorable Harold Berger
EE'48, L'51

THANK YOU TO OUR VOLUNTEERS

The Honorable Harold Berger EE'48, L'51 is the chair of the Friends of Biddle Law Library. Judge Berger is a senior partner and managing principal of Berger and Montague P.C. He formerly served as judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Philadelphia and is the immediate past president of the Federal Bar Association's Eastern and State Judiciary. He is the author of numerous law review articles, has lectured extensively before bar associations and at universities, and has served as chair of the International Conferences on Global Interdependence held at Princeton University. Judge Berger has served as chair of the Aerospace Law Committees of the American, Federal and Inter-American Bar Associations and, in recognition of the importance and impact of his scholarly work, was elected to the International Academy of Astronautics in Paris.

As his biographies in Who's Who in America and Who's Who in American Law outline, he is the recipient of numerous awards, including the Special Service Award of the Pennsylvania Conference of State Trial Judges and a Special American Bar Association Presidential Program Award. Judge Berger is a permanent member of the Judicial Conference of the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit and is the recipient of the Federal Bar Association's National Service Award for distinguished service to the Federal and State Judiciary. He has participated in many national litigation matters of complex nature including In Re: Three Mile Island litigation where he served as liaison counsel and the Exxon Valdez oil Spill litigation where he served on the case management team and as co-chair of the National Discovery Committee.

Judge Berger has previously made major commitments to the Law Annual Giving Fund and the Biddle Law Library. He is a member of the Board of Overseers of the University of Pennsylvania's School of Engineering & Applied Sciences and has made major gifts to create the Harold and Renee Berger Auditorium and Lobby in Penn's new Bio-Engineering building.

The world of libraries and information is rapidly changing, but many people assume the changes mean libraries are less involved in the life of a law school. This is not the case for the Biddle Law library and Penn Law. Student and faculty use of both the services of our librarians and our collections continues to expand. For the students, the libraries are increasingly a part of their new professional lives. They will be working with information specialists for the rest of their careers, and we begin that support during the first few weeks of their first year at Penn Law. We provide them additional support and training as they prepare for their various summer positions after their first year.

Our cross-disciplinary faculty continues to provide us with many opportunities to create new services and ways to assist them in their scholarship and teaching. A new summer faculty research assistant program has greatly enhanced the faculty's scholarly work as has a new service that helps them with the final preparation for publication of their articles and books.

All of our services are supported by our diverse and rich collections of both print and electronic materials. As the electronic resources become increasingly important, we are pleased that we have been able to acquire and maintain the most important and scholarly databases for our faculty and students. These have greatly enhanced and modernized our collections and resources making it possible for us to provide access to materials and information that was never possible in the days when print was the dominant medium for research. We are fortunate that the generosity of our friends and alumni has enabled us to continue to build and maintain the collections and services necessary for a modern law library of the twenty-first century.

FRIENDS OF THE GITTIS CLINIC

The Law School is grateful to the following donors who generously gave $86,338 in support of the The Gittis Center for Clinical Legal Studies in the academic year 2008-2009.

The Gittis Center for Clinical Legal Studies is the home of the Law School's nationally acclaimed clinical programs that afford students the opportunity to build successful relationships with diverse clients, work closely with professionals from other fields, engage in legal advocacy, and learn about law and lawyering under the close supervision of a highly talented and experienced faculty. It is in the clinical programs that theory and practice merge in service to underserved communities and clients.

As in years past, students enrolled in the clinical programs have worked on many exciting new cases and projects. Below are three examples of student work from a very busy and productive year:

- Students in the Entrepreneurship Legal Clinic hosted a three-part series of workshops entitled "Legal Boot Camp for Small Business." With more than fifty participants signed up for each of the workshops, clinic students presented valuable community education presentations on such subjects as "Hiring, Managing and Firing Employees," "Choosing the Right Business Entity" and "Protecting Your Intellectual Property."
- Students in the Interdisciplinary Child Advocacy Clinic battled in administrative agency proceedings to obtain medical insurance coverage so that a low-income mother could purchase a chair lift needed to provide in-home care to her quadriplegic child. After this gratifying victory, the student and the clinic were featured on a Philadelphia network's evening news.
- Students in the Transnational Legal Clinic appeared before the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights for a hearing on Due Process Violations in the U.S. Detention and Deportation Policies. They testified as representatives of a coalition of international human rights law clinical programs, and on behalf of non-governmental organizations engaged in advocacy and representation of immigrants in the U.S.

In addition, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom and its partners made a generous, $1 million gift to Penn Law School's Transnational Legal Clinic in honor of Robert C. Sheehan, Penn Law class of 1969, who recently ended his 15-year tenure as executive partner of the law firm. The gift will help support and enhance the important asylum and international human rights work of the Transnational Legal Clinic.

Further, the Gittis Center for Clinical Legal Studies and The Association of American Law Schools Bellow Scholars Group jointly sponsored a national workshop on empirical research for clinical law professors and public interest lawyers. Held at Penn Law, representatives from Harvard, Columbia, Stanford, Maryland, and other leading law schools and public interest organizations attended and participated in exploring ways to enhance their scholarship and advocacy through empirical research.

LAW ALUMNI SOCIETY

MEMBERSHIP FOR 2008-2009

The University of Pennsylvania Law School is grateful to the following alumni who joined the Law Alumni Society in the Academic Year in 2008-2009.

Richard D'Avino W'77, L'80

THANK YOU TO OUR VOLUNTEERS

Richard D'Avino W'77, L'80 is the new president of the Law Alumni Society and was the Society's first vice president during fiscal year 2008-09. Mr. D'Avino has also served as Penn Law's national chair of Annual Giving and is a past chairman of the Benjamin Franklin Society.

He is now vice president and senior tax counsel at GE, where he is responsible for taxes at GE Capital and NBC Universal. Mr. D'Avino joined GE Capital in 1991 after practicing law as a partner at the firm of King & Spalding in Washington, D.C., for four years. He has also held positions as deputy tax legislative counsel in the U.S. Treasury Department, associate at Cohen & Uretz of Washington, D.C. and clerk for Judge Alvin B. Rubin of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit in Louisiana.

The University extends its gratitude and warmest wishes toward outgoing Law Alumni Society president James P. Golden C'77, L'80, who presided over the Society in fiscal years 2007-2008 and 2008-2009.

The Law Alumni Society Board of Managers advises the alumni relations program in its outreach to the alumni of the Law School. It is actively involved in the Alumni Awards process, charters and mentors Penn Law alumni clubs, volunteers with Penn Law admissions efforts and represents our alumni base. Alumni serve three-year terms and meet at the Law School three times a year.
