Message from Philip S. Khoury

Chairman, Board of Trustees

Dear Alumni and Friends,

As many of you know, the cost of sending a child to college has outstripped the growth of family income in recent years. Although tuition has increased at AUB as well, it covers only a portion of the expense of the education that our students receive. The balance is paid from endowment income and contributions from our alumni and friends, from people like you.

All universities seek to build a solid foundation of support – one that is made up of as many different components as possible. AUB is no different. In recent years, under the strong leadership of my predecessor Dr. Thomas Q. Morris and former AUB President John Waterbury, the University completed a successful five-year fundraising campaign, built its endowment, and reached out to new donors. Despite the challenging economic times in which we are living, our alumni and friends have responded generously thereby enabling AUB to increase its financial aid program, strengthen its academic programs, and renovate and construct new facilities on campus. Although every gift is important, annual giving plays an especially critical role in our fundraising efforts.

It is an integral way for the members of the AUB family to help us fulfill our mission and to demonstrate their support for our future endeavors. Your unrestricted annual gift is even more valuable as it provides vital support to the University's annual operating budget and helps to ensure that we have the resources and flexibility to provide our students with a high quality college experience while maintaining a balanced budget. This is something we must achieve to ensure that we will be able to provide a similar experience to future generations of AUB students.

Many of the men and women listed in this report are annual donors to AUB. Some of them have taken the additional step of becoming members of the Daniel Bliss Society by making annual gifts of at least $1,000. David Stuart Dodge, who served AUB tirelessly throughout his life in many different capacities, passed away in January 2009. One of the many legacies that he left AUB is the Daniel Bliss Society that he founded in 1986 to – in his words – “recognize those individuals who today support AUB with the same kind of vision, generosity and commitment” that inspired AUB Founder Daniel Bliss. Having served as chair of the Daniel Bliss Society Leadership Committee, I am especially aware of the important role that the members of the society have played. They have provided significant financial support for AUB over the years. They have also set an example by their commitment and their generosity that has inspired others to join the growing ranks of men and women who make annual gifts to AUB.

On behalf of the AUB Board of Trustees, I would like to thank all of you for the many ways that you give to AUB – and invite you to renew your support in 2009-10.

Message from Peter F. Dorman

President of the University

Dear Alumni and Friends,

I am delighted to have this opportunity to thank all of you for your support for the American University of Beirut during the fiscal year that ended on September 30, 2009. Your contribution is absolutely critical to our ability to “provide excellence in education, to participate in the advancement of knowledge through research, and to serve the peoples of the Middle East and beyond.”

During my presidential inaugural address on May 4, 2009, I identified three priorities that will inform the choices that we make in the months and years ahead to achieve this mission. I believe that AUB should seek to foster an intellectual community on campus that thrives on collegial discourse and interdisciplinary innovation, to achieve a dynamic and diverse student body, and to cultivate a responsive campus community.

The University is planning a number of initiatives to implement these priorities. Recognizing the important role that a strong financial aid program plays in achieving a socioeconomically diverse student body, AUB has launched a drive to raise $20 million over the next two years for scholarships. I am proud to report that we have already received an additional $5 million from five donors who hope that their gifts will encourage others to participate in this important endeavor. One of the other ways that we are working to increase the diversity of our student body is to attract more students from the region, Europe, and the United States for both short-term exchanges and our regular academic programs. We have been encouraged by the very positive response that we have already received to our efforts in this area.

Although the University has made enormous strides in recent years to strengthen its academic and research programs with the introduction of new degree offerings at all levels (undergraduate, master’s, and PhD) and the establishment of research centers and endowed faculty chairs, we seek to do more. Our faculty and students are contributing to – and in some cases leading – national and regional efforts to make the Middle East region once again a hub of scientific and research activity focusing in particular on the fields of alternative energy and the environment, biodiversity, medical sciences, and public health. These are all areas in which AUB has expertise and experience that I believe we can and should leverage as part of our commitment to contribute to the national and regional communities in which we live and work.

This effort will also go a long way to fostering an intellectual atmosphere on campus that will enhance the educational experience of our students and help them to become young men and women “committed to creative and critical thinking, life-long learning, personal integrity and civic responsibility, and leadership.”

I am acutely aware that all these initiatives require a significant – and ongoing – investment in our people and our facilities. With the assistance of our alumni and friends, I am confident that we will be able to secure the resources we need. I believe strongly that AUB has an important role to play in Lebanon and the region. It is a role we can only play, however, with your support and encouragement.

Message from Ray Irani

Chairman, Trustee Development Committee

Dear Alumni and Friends,

The festivities on campus in May 2009 to celebrate the inauguration of Peter F. Dorman as AUB's 15th president were a very special occasion for all of us – and for the University. In his speech, President Dorman stated that the University “must do more to ensure an AUB education for all academically qualified students in an atmosphere of broad social, economic, and intellectual diversity.”

Achieving a geographically and socio-economically diverse student body is a longstanding goal for the AUB Board of Trustees and was one of the priorities of the five-year fundraising campaign that we concluded in December 2007. It is important that we continue to build our financial aid program so that we can meet the increasing need of our current students – and to support our efforts to attract students who have not traditionally even considered attending AUB because of financial constraints. Being able to offer these young men and women the opportunity to attend AUB supports the University's mission to serve the peoples of the Middle East and beyond. Their presence on campus also enhances the occasionally life-changing personal and academic experiences that so many of our students enjoy at AUB. We regularly hear from our alumni, for example, how much they value the opportunity they had at AUB to meet, get to know, and study side by side with men and women from different communities and socio-economic backgrounds. Offering all of our students this opportunity is absolutely critical to our efforts to promote the values of tolerance and mutual respect that are central to AUB's mission.

It is an indication of the importance that the Board of Trustees places on AUB's achievement of a diverse student body that its commitment to this priority has not wavered. I am proud and very grateful that many of my fellow trustees have gone even further and made personal gifts and pledges to AUB to establish scholarships and doctoral fellowships.

You can read more about financial aid and scholarships at AUB in the article on page 38 of this report.

In 2008-09, the President's Club supported dozens of projects at AUB to enhance student life, which has been its mission since 1981. Its presence can be felt throughout the University – in its support for cultural life on campus and the always popular Christmas and spring concerts; for the Folk Dance Festival that transforms the Green Field each year in May; in the comfortable and much appreciated student lounges in FEA, FAS, and the Diana Tamari Sabbagh Building; in the renovated smart classrooms in the Faculty of Health Sciences; and the refurbishment of Mary Dodge Hall.

One of the highlights last year was the inauguration on February 11 of the President's Club Lecture Room – an e-examination room – in Bliss Hall. The President's Club donated $250,000 for this electronic/interactive examination room that accommodates 112 students and is equipped with computers at every desk. The President's Club also lent a helping hand to handicapped students at AUB by purchasing job pools at the Charles W. Hostler Student Center to enable them to use the pool facilities. The Zaki Nassif Music Program, which celebrates the music of Zaki Nassif and is working to strengthen music programs at AUB, also benefited from President's Club support for its "A Choir from Every School" concert in May.

At its annual reception on May 21 at the Hostler Student Center, Club President Laila Baroody urged everyone to participate in the "Adopt a Bench" campaign, one of the club's most successful and popular initiatives in recent years. The campaign got a boost last year with the addition of new benches on campus – many of which can still be adopted for a gift of $5,000 to the President's Club to support student life on campus.

The 70 women who volunteer in support of the Women's Auxiliary raised LL 231,730,000 ($154,500) last year for a number of worthy causes at the AUB Medical Center. The proceeds from the Coffee Shop and Gift Shop, which totaled LL 79 million, were donated to the Social Service Department and used to help needy adult patients. The Women's Auxiliary earned an additional LL 58 million at the Bargain

Box that benefited pediatric patients and contributed LL 62 million to the Nabila Firzli Emergency Fund and LL 8,280,000 in medications for ambulatory patients it received from various fundraising activities.

The Women's Auxiliary organized several popular and successful events throughout the course of the year. At the annual Christmas luncheon at the Gefinor Rotana Hotel on December 13, guests enjoyed a musical performance by soprano Maria Mattar and pianist Johnny Hashem. There was a full house in West Hall's Bathish Auditorium for Dr. Abdul Ghani Kibbi's talk on January 28, "Aging Gracefully: Recent Developments in Skin Care." Spanish food and dance was on the menu for the March 2009 fundraising luncheon at the Intercontinental Phoenicia Hotel that raised money to help needy patients at AUBMC.

Women's Auxiliary President Mrs. Amal Najjar welcomed everyone to the final event of the year: the always popular Toy Tea Party, which took place in the garden of Marquand House on the AUB campus on June 18, 2009 and featured Indonesian music and dance, in collaboration with the Indonesian Embassy and the presence of the Ambassador and his wife. Speaking on behalf of the Hariri School of Nursing, Director Dr. Huda Huijer thanked the Women's Auxiliary for its longstanding and very generous support for nursing, which amounted to LL 24,450,000 in 2008-09 – money that was used to fund two nursing scholarships and 12 awards to both nursing students and nurses at AUBMC.

The AUB Scholarship Fundraising Committee traces its roots back to 1991 and a sad day in the history of AUB: the bombing of College Hall. This devastating event galvanized a group of AUB alumni and friends to come together and establish the College Hall Fundraising Committee to raise critical financial support to rebuild this AUB landmark. Buoyed by the success of that effort, this dedicated group decided that instead of disbanding they would rename themselves the AUB Scholarship Fundraising Committee. In the last nine years, the committee has been raising much needed money to fund scholarships at AUB.

This past year has been a difficult period for the members of the Scholarship Fundraising Committee who mourned the loss of three of their founding members: H.E. Mr. Nadim Dimechkie (former chair of both the College Hall Fundraising Committee and the Scholarship Fundraising Committee), Mr. Fawzi Maalouf (former president of the AUB Alumni Association), and Mr. Nabil Nassar (former chair of the Scholarship Fundraising Committee). Although these tragic events forced the committee to cancel and postpone many of its activities, the members of the Scholarship Fundraising Committee remain committed to their mission to increase the funds available for financial aid and are looking forward to 2009-10 under the leadership of chair Mrs. Asma Zein.

Established in 1979 by Museum Director Dr. Leila Badre, the Society of the Friends of the AUB Museum sponsors events to support the museum and to promote an appreciation of archaeology in the region. During the past year, it sponsored a series of special archaeological programs adapted for children; celebrated International Museum Day with a private visit to the Roman Crypto Portico in the new underground museum of the Parliament Annex Building on May 18; organized an eagerly anticipated trip to Armenia and excursions to the old church of Sergius and Bakhos in Kaftoun with its newly restored frescoes; and welcomed a number of distinguished guest speakers to the museum including AUB President Peter Dorman.

President Dorman, who was a professor in Egyptology at the University of Chicago prior to becoming AUB president, chose “Gender Trouble in Ancient Egypt: The Case of King/Queen Hatshepsut” as the topic for his talk on October 22. In December, archaeologist, historian, and AUB alumna Nina Jidejian presented an illustrated lecture on the theme of her book, “Beirut, City of Contrast.” There were also large and appreciative audiences for lectures by Dr. Michel Al-Maqdissi in January, Dr. Jeanine Abdul Massih in February, and Dr. Tim Stanley in March.

Once again this year, the society’s Children’s Program attracted dozens of children to the museum – many for the first time. Those who took part this past year had a chance to learn about the oldest city in the world (Byblos), discover “masks through the ages,” find out what it takes to be an archaeologist, and to participate in “restoring the past.”

Fingerprints

More than 60 percent of the students who graduated from AUB in 2009 left their fingerprints behind as they exited campus by making a donation of at least $25 to the Fingerprints Endowed Scholarship Fund. The University Student Faculty Committee (USFC) stepped forward once again to match the $36,517 that 1,098 graduating students contributed two-for-one bringing the grand total contributed in 2009 to around $110,000.

The proceeds from the Fingerprints Endowed Scholarship Fund, which was established in 2002 by students who wanted to lend a helping hand to their classmates who were struggling financially, benefit AUB students. The number of graduating students contributing to the fund has increased steadily over the years from just 24 percent of the graduating class in 2002, the first year of the program, to more than 60 percent in 2009. Students contributing to the fund do so knowing that their donations will be matched by the USFC and often by generous AUB trustees as well. They also contribute knowing that by doing so, they are making it a little easier for other AUB students to enjoy the unique AUB experience that they value so much. So far, 64 AUB students have received financial assistance from the Fingerprints Endowed Scholarship Fund.

Because this is an endowed fund, the money that is contributed by graduating students, the USFC, and AUB trustees, which now totals more than $900,000, is invested. Only the income that the fund earns is distributed thereby ensuring that there will always be a Fingerprints Endowed Scholarship Fund at AUB – a permanent memorial to the generosity of AUB students.

The Dubai Volunteers of the Brave Heart Fund (BHF) kicked off the year with a gala dinner in the Jumeirah Emirates Towers Hotel Dubai on October 18, 2008 under the patronage of HRH Princess Haya bint Al Hussein. The event was attended by His Excellency Sheikh Nahayan Mabarak Al Nahayan, and included an “Art for the Heart Auction” of paintings and sculptures by the region’s leading artists. Enough money was raised to cover the expenses of 65 complex procedures for needy children with congenital heart disease (CHD), thanks in part to the help of auctioneer Nishan Der Haroutiounian. In November, the BHF sponsored two more successful fundraising events: “Performing Hearts” that showcased the talents of local performing artists including stand-up comic Nimr Abou Nassar, and the Beirut avant-première of Madagascar 2.

In addition to raising funds to help needy families with children suffering from CHD, the Brave Heart Fund is also increasing public awareness of this disease. In February 2009, for the 4th consecutive year and with support from the Lebanese Ministry of Health, the BHF launched a media campaign designed by Impact BBDO that included an unforgettable walk-a-thon of children from the Children’s Inn Day Care around the AUB hospital. On March 13, the BHF hosted its first Beirut Gala Dinner at the Phoenicia Intercontinental Hotel under the patronage of H.E. Fouad Siniora. The event featured an auction of items contributed by well-known celebrities. Inspired by MC and auctioneer Peri Cochin, those in attendance bid generously raising funds for as many as 40 complex open-heart surgeries.

Good friends of the Brave Heart Fund, Zeina Kahale and Rayane Abbas, hosted a successful fundraising dinner on March 25 at the Riyadh Four Seasons Hotel. In May, the Brave Heart Fund collaborated with Spotvision to present a short film about heart disease in children on four giant outdoor screens at the 62nd Cannes Film Festival. Children’s fashion designer Rania Tohmé of “Lola et Moi” also lent her support last year by designing limited edition T-shirts for boys and girls to benefit the Brave Heart Fund.

Reunion 2009: Celebrating Who We Are

Welcome back to the classes of 1954, '59, '64, '69, '74, '79, '84, '89, '94, '99 and 2004!

On July 3-5, alumni from Lebanon, the Middle East and further afield brought their families to share in the joy of being back on campus with their old classmates. To kick off the weekend, 600 guests gathered in Assembly Hall at a ceremony honoring 200 alumni celebrating their 25th and 50th reunions. AUB President Peter Dorman, Worldwide Alumni Association of AUB President Khalil Makkawi, MEA Chairman Mohamed Hout, and AUB Trustee Leila Sharaf all addressed the alumni at this special event. “As AUB alumni, we have a lot to celebrate – not just the time we spent at this university, but the love and support of our families, the places we have seen, the people we have met, and the friendships we have forged,” said Makkawi.

The rest of the weekend was spent enjoying good company over shared meals at brunch in the cafeteria, at a gala in downtown Beirut’s Buddha Bar, and during a family outing to Baskinta village. Alumni rediscovered the campus (especially the Hostler Center and the AUB beach), tackled the playing field for a game of football, and listened to lively debates at the resurrected Speaker’s Corner. Arab diva Majida El Roumi’s benefit concert on the Green Field attracted a crowd of thousands. Proceeds benefitted the AUB Student Scholarship Fund.

Several “reunion-ing” classes held their own mini-gatherings: graduates of 2004 danced the night away at Bubbles in the Palm Beach Hotel and alumni from 1984 had a festive dinner at La Posta. Dean Ibrahim Hajj (FEA '64) and his wife Rosangela invited his reunion classmates to a dinner at their home overlooking the Green Field, providing his guests with an unmatched view of the Majida El Roumi concert. That evening, the class surprised Dean Hajj by presenting him with a plaque naming the “CAD” laboratory for the Class of 1964 in his honor. The class raised $100,000 for this naming opportunity prior to the dinner.

Financial Aid

Throughout its history, AUB has provided young men and women from Lebanon and the region with the opportunity to learn the skills they will need to succeed in their chosen professions while also exposing them to the rich experiences that a broad-based liberal arts curriculum provides. Students come to AUB because of our outstanding academic reputation, our proud history, and the extensive educational and learning opportunities that we provide.

They also come to AUB to meet and study with people from different geographic, religious, ethnic, and socio-economic backgrounds. This is one of the reasons that AUB has worked so hard in recent years to increase the diversity of its student body. We recognize the important role that a diverse student body has traditionally played in the unique educational experience that AUB offers – and that our students value so highly. As many educators have observed, being able to study as a member of a diverse community enhances the learning environment and provides students with the chance to hone skills that will serve them well throughout their lives. “The experience of arriving on a campus to live and study with classmates from a diverse range of backgrounds is essential to students’ training for this new world, nurturing in them an instinct to reach out instead of clinging to the comforts of what seems natural or familiar. We know that connecting with people very — or even slightly — different from ourselves stimulates the imagination; and when we learn to see the world through a multiplicity of eyes, we only make ourselves more nimble in mastering — and integrating — the diverse fields of knowledge awaiting us.”¹

Every year, we select students from among thousands of academically qualified applicants and then work with them and their families to insure that they have the financial resources they will need to enroll at AUB. We know, however, that many young people who have the intellect, leadership potential, and determination to succeed at AUB are discouraged from applying because of financial constraints – and that many of the students who we do assist do not get all the help that they request. We believe that it is fundamentally important to our mission that students are admitted to AUB on the basis of their scholarship, promise, and willingness to work hard – and not on their ability to pay for an AUB education. Having a strong and generous scholarship program is absolutely essential to this effort.

AUB has been able to significantly increase its financial aid budget in recent years thanks in part to the strong support we have received from our alumni and friends especially during our five-year fundraising campaign: The Campaign for Excellence. Between October 2002 and December 2007, we raised around $35 million for financial aid including more than $23 million to endow scholarship funds. Although the campaign has ended, we have continued to build our financial aid program and have recently launched a two-year initiative to raise an additional $20 million for financial aid.

Scholarships can – and do – make a transformative difference in the lives of students and their families. They are also a powerful way to reward students for their academic achievement and to inspire them to take on new challenges. Students often develop a deep sense of pride and appreciation when they are selected to receive a scholarship, which inspires them to reach out and help others who need a helping hand in order to achieve their potential. We have found, for example, that many of the students who contribute to Fingerprints – a student-driven fundraising program at AUB to raise money for financial aid – are themselves financial aid recipients.

A strong financial aid program also promotes economic development because it makes it possible for a broader segment of the population to gain the skills they will need to participate productively in the work force.

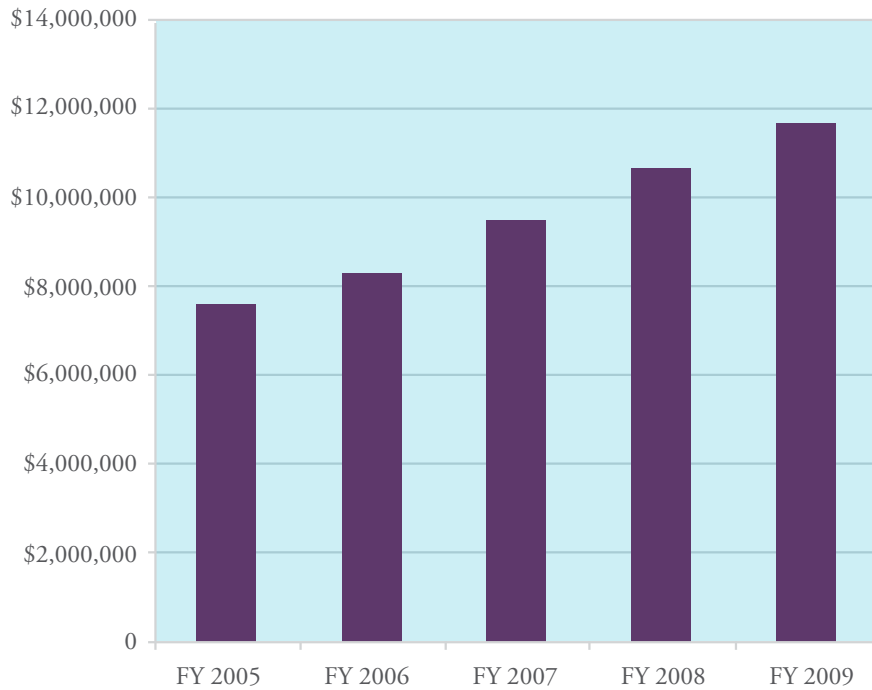

We salute – and extend our deep appreciation to – the thousands of men and women, institutions, and foundations listed in this report that made contributions to AUB during the past year. We are proud to partner with them in support of our mission to support the peoples of the Middle East and beyond.
